

MINISTER NOT GUILTY OF ASSAULT IN CHURCH.

Trouble Among Jersey City Presbyterians Aired in Court and Rev. Andrew Green Triumphs.

The prejudice of Donald Murray against music in a church resulted in the attendance of about the whole congregation of the First Presbyterian Church in the Second Criminal Court in Jersey City today, when Rev. Andrew Green, D. D., Robert A. Bell and Robert Bell were arraigned, charged with assaulting Murray. Dr. Henry and Robert A. Bell were discharged.

Robert Bell was found guilty, but Judge Murphy suspended sentence. Murray told the story of the cause leading up to the affair before an audience that was plainly hostile. The only witnesses he had were his wife, his sister and his niece. On the side of the minister there were scores of women ready to testify that Murray had not been assaulted.

In his testimony Murray, who is rigid and gloomy in his belief, said that he had been invited to lead a prayer meeting in the church on April 23. As he took the chair he noticed that Miss Barbara Henry, the daughter of the minister, was seated at the piano.

"I said that I had conscientious scruples against music in a church," testified Murray, "and as I was to lead the meeting I asked Miss Henry to close the piano."

"The minister arose and said that he would not allow the piano to be closed. I said if it was not closed I would smash it. Then I turned over and hit the keyboard with my fist."

Rapid developments succeeded. Dr. Henry, it appears from the testimony, leaped to the piano and slapped Murray on the wrist, knocking his Bible from his hand. Then the two bells mixed in and there was ringing time.

Murray asserted on the stand that Robert A. Bell hit him in the chest and that Robert Bell pushed and hauled him and struck him. He said he had five marks on his face the next day and that on Friday he had a hemorrhage.

Mrs. Murray said that she saw the bells strike her husband from behind at least five times. This testimony was corroborated by Mrs. J. C. Murray's sister, and her daughter, Isaac.

Testimony for the defendants was to the effect that the minister and Robert A. Bell used force in dealing with Murray.

The decision of Judge Murphy, discharging the minister and Robert A. Bell, was greeted with applause, but the end is not yet of the controversy over piano music in the First Presbyterian Church of Jersey City.

HOOK AND LADDER SENDS HORSE FLYING INTO AREA

Fire Apparatus Crashes Into a Wagon and a Small-Sized Panic Follows in East Twenty-Eighth Street.

Rushing through East Twenty-eighth street in response to an alarm, Hook and Ladder No. 7 crashed into a wagon standing at the curb opposite No. 161 East Twenty-eighth street today. The impact was so terrific that the horse attached to the wagon was hurled across the sidewalk and went careening over a low railing into a store window and then dropped into the area below.

Here the animal crashed through a show window in which were displayed crucifixes, small religious statues and holy beads. Further progress of the flying animal was stopped by the sustaining harness, which remained intact, dragging the wrecked wagon across the sidewalk.

The horse and wagon are the property of the New York and Brooklyn Independent Light Company, of No. 23 East Sixty-ninth street. Just a moment before the collision the driver of the horse, C. B. Melken, alighted from the wagon and had stepped into a neighboring store.

The upper store, the window of which was wrecked by the plunging horse, is occupied by A. Broberg, a shoemaker. The store in the basement is conducted by Mrs. Halton Holt. The occupants of both stores were thrown into a small-sized panic. Employees of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals rigged a derrick with which the horse, which was badly cut, was hoisted to the street. Then it was taken to the society's hospital.

BOY ACCUSED OF MURDER.
TRENTON, N. J., May 2.—The jury in the case of Edward Taylor, the sixteen-year-old boy accused of the murder of Charles Hyde, came into court today with a disagreement and were discharged by Justice Pitney. The jury had been out since 1 o'clock yesterday morning. It is doubtful if there will be a new trial.

"I THINK" OF PARTRIDGE ABOUT THE POLICE FORCE.

Commissioner Believes He Can See Signs of Improvement, but Has Not Made Up His Mind About Churchill.

Commissioner Partridge was in a thinking and a talking mood at Police Headquarters today. This is the result:

"I THINK," he said, "there has been an improvement in the discipline of the patrolmen."

"I THINK there has been an improvement throughout the whole force."

"I THINK that the appearance of the men on post shows that they are attending better to their duties than ever before."

"I THINK that every citizen can see these improvements."

"I THINK the men are doing their work better not only in the way of discipline, but in the matter of being watchful and alert. Take the records of burglaries, for instance. I THINK the records will show that the men are doing honest police work. I SHALL NOT say anything about patrolmen losing respect for their captains, but I AM DOING A LOT OF THINKING about it."

"Are you going to grant Churchill's request to send him to the West 83rd street station?" the Commissioner was asked.

"I have not made up my mind as to that," was the answer.

KIDNAPPER MAY HAVE CARRIED OFF LITTLE BOY.

Three-Year-Old Missing from Home in Paterson Since Yesterday Was Seen with a Stranger.

(Special to The Evening World.)
PATERSON, N. J., May 2.—Three-year-old Gavin Young is still missing, and his parents who live at No. 10 Madison street, believe he has been kidnapped.

This theory was formed on the statement of a neighbor who declares that the child was seen last night by a stranger, who led him away to the direction of the Paterson river mill.

The little fellow went out to play in front of the home yesterday morning and nothing has been seen of him since. The locality in which he lives has been thoroughly searched, the police notified and an alarm sent out to all the surrounding villages.

The boy is a handsome child, and when he left his home wore a blue sailor suit, a red waist, a little gray neck coat and brown shoes. He was about three years old.

Any one who has information as to the whereabouts of the boy, please call on the police or the Evening World.

Sale of Men's Suits.

There are thousands of well-dressed men in this town who are wearing our $10, $12, $15 and $20 Suits—you see them everywhere, and you'd judge from their smart, elegant appearance they had cost $25 to $40 at a fine custom tailor's. This is the great advantage of buying Vogel Brothers' clothes—you save money—wear clothes that always look right and that hold their shape. Things you don't expect and cannot get in the ordinary ready-made clothing.

Men's Suits. In speaking of our suits at $10, it is well to bear in mind that in the making of them there is as much attention given to details as in our higher priced ones, they are cut on the same smart patterns—and could not be sold for less than $14 if it were not that we sell them in very large quantities.

Men's Black Cheviot Suits, Special at $10. In the average store you really don't expect much of a suit when you pay $12; you'll feel quite different when you see ours; expect the most of them; they are practically $15 suits—maker to wearer saves you the $3.

Men's blue and black Serge Suits, blue and black unfinished Worsteds, light and dark colored Cheviots and Cassimeres. at $12

There is no need of your going further than this store for the best $15 suit in New York. There are no better, and will not be, unless we can improve ours; the assortment is practically limitless; there is much satisfaction in knowing that if there is any particular fabric or color you have in mind you'll find it here.

Blue and black Worsteds Cheviots and Thin-ets, Fancy Cheviots, neat worsted effects, Oxford Mixtures, blue, black and brown Serges. at $15

Our suits at $20 are the height of style and excellence—they are as good in every way as the suits the best custom tailors make at $35 and $40. These few mentioned below are the very newest in spring suits.

Light weight Worsteds, half lined and full lined, in gray mottled effects, light Over-plaids and Stripes. at $20

Sale of Spring Overcoats. 300 Short Top Coats, reduced 150 Spring Paddock Overcoats, reduced from $20 to
